

ASUCRP

THE ASSOCIATION OF STATE UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAMS

2017 Conference

Monday, November 6 through Thursday, November 9, 2017

StoweFlake Mountain Resort & Spa

Stowe, Vermont

INVITATION TO ATTEND, EXHIBIT, OR SPONSOR

The Association of Uniform Crime Reporting Programs (ASUCRP) members invite you to our 2017 Conference.

ASUCRP is comprised of uniform crime managers from 46 states, the District of Columbia, Guam and the Virgin Islands which collect crime data from over 17,000 jurisdictions represented by law enforcement contributors. Attendees include UCR Program Managers, the FBI, local law enforcement agencies, researchers and non-profit organizations.

Attendees will learn about recent and proposed changes to UCR and the challenges the contributors face. It will be a tremendous networking opportunity. Those who choose to exhibit will have a 6-foot covered table, two chairs and an electrical hookup right in the foyer, directly outside the meeting room.

If you would like to introduce your company and your products to the group, choose a sponsorship that includes a speaking slot. Advertising alone is available for those who cannot make it in person but would like to get their name and capabilities in front of this group.

Top software suppliers and vendors will be there. They will have demos and solutions for data collection and analysis challenges. New this year: The ASUCRP is accepting payment via credit card to make your participation easier!

For more information on the venue, click <http://www.stoweFlake.com>. For the latest conference information and for the registration information, go to our web site, http://asucrp.net/conferences/2017-ASUCRP_Conference/ or contact Samantha Kanish, Secretary, 307-777-7625, or at Samantha.Kanish@wyo.gov. The hotel has offered to extend the conference rate of $126 per room for three days prior and three days after the conference.

Thomas Earl Adams
ASUCRP President